

Vigil for Life

Thursday, September 9, 2010

7:30 p.m.

Crosby Center, Gonzaga University

At 12:01 a.m. on September 10, the State of Washington plans to execute Cal Coburn Brown for a 1991 murder in King County.

This will be the first execution in our state since 2001, and only the fifth execution since capital punishment was legalized again in 1976.

On this occasion, Gonzaga University & Catholic Charities invite you to hold prayerful vigil with others as we witness to the sacredness of all human life and pray for the lives and souls of the condemned man, his victim, Holly Washa, and all those lives lost to violence in all forms.
